

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

Application and Interview Process Assessment

Is your online application process easily accessible for individuals with disabilities?

Yes No

If you are working with partner agencies, how are you integrating them into your application and interview process? What are their comments about your application and interview process?

Have the employees who manage this process at your site had access to disability awareness and etiquette training, and do they understand the goals of this program?

Do you allow a job coach or guardian to assist with the application process?

Yes No

Can they be at the interview for support?

Yes No